Mapping World War I, 1914

Directions: On the map below, label the countries and cities listed below. Color-code your map (and create a map key) to show which countries belonged to the Allied Powers, and which belonged to the Central Powers. Then draw arrows to show German's Schlieffen Plan, France's Plan XVII, and Russia's invasion of Germany and Austria-Hungary. Use stars to show the locations of the First Battle of the Marne and the Battle of Tannenberg.

Countries: Germany, France, Great Britain, Austria-Hungary, Serbia, Bulgaria, Russia, Ottoman Empire, Belgium

Cities: Paris, Berlin, London, Moscow, Brussels, Vienna
